thanks for the rapid response, Mr. Tony that is true, put a password it's a solution to the first problem
I think there is a loss of information in some of files, I got this error again:

This application has encountered an unrecoverable error

The following has been reported to the administrator:

2017-05-05 12:37:46

Fatal Error: XSL functions are not available. (# 256)
