Have you created the database as per the installation instructions? Have you loaded the data?
Can you see the "radicare" database with its collection of schemas with your database administration tool (pgAdmin)?

Yesterday, revised then problem, and, when a password is empty show me the message error. I put a password and the problem is finish.

Then, the system show the error when a dbpassword is empty.

Thanks.

It is amazing how well things work when you follow the instructions.
