The 'quick reply' feature of the forum is not working. You enter your message in quick reply and hit 'post reply' and the system looks like it submits but nothing is added to the original post.

I will take a look in FUDforum's own forum to see if this has been reported and/or fixed in a new release.

That's strange! I tried posting message #2508 (and this one) using the 'Quick Reply' button, and it worked OK. It must have been a temporary glitch.
